

ASIAN AMERICAN VOICES

Call for Student Submissions

Deadline: December 15th

We Accept:

Critical essays (5 pages max.)

Short fiction, drama, and creative nonfiction (4 pages max.)

Recipes (2 pages max.)

Art: photography, painting, and drawing (submit up to 3)

Poems (submit up to 3)

Interviews (3 pages max.)

Digital Materials (5 minutes max.)

Guidelines:

Literary submissions should be in Word Doc format.

Art submissions should be within 5 megabytes (MB)

Work should be proofread and revised for grammar errors.

Submit Materials To

<http://bit.ly/AAV2021>

Check out our previous issues:

<https://www.laguardia.edu/ahc/>

For further questions, contact Prof. Anita Baksh at abaksh@lagcc.cuny.edu

Asian American Voices is a journal of literary and visual work created by LaGuardia students to celebrate Asian and Asian American heritage at LaGuardia.

We aim to showcase the diverse cultures, religions, histories, festivals, languages, and talents of the Asian American community of our campus as well as student work related to Asian American Studies.